Roosevelt Attacks Court.

Taking up the Idaho supreme cour decision, Roosevelt said. "I have been asked by J. H. Gipson, progressive state chairman of Idaho, on his behalf to present to you a few words as a concrete illustration of which court has done the greatest injustic to the people and is seeking to do : worse injustice."
"In Idaho the election law make no provision for the election of presidential electors. The supreme cour construed this so as to permit repullican and democratic electors to be nut on the ticket by construing a provision which provided for the elec-tion of constables and other officers to include presidential electors and I think it quite right to follow such a construction; it is a very loose construction, but necessary.
